President's Message

The Students' Council again proved to be a startling financial success. This year the council has had an unusually high turnover of money and still sits substantially stable. The amazing thing about it all is that no class to class fund raising was used.

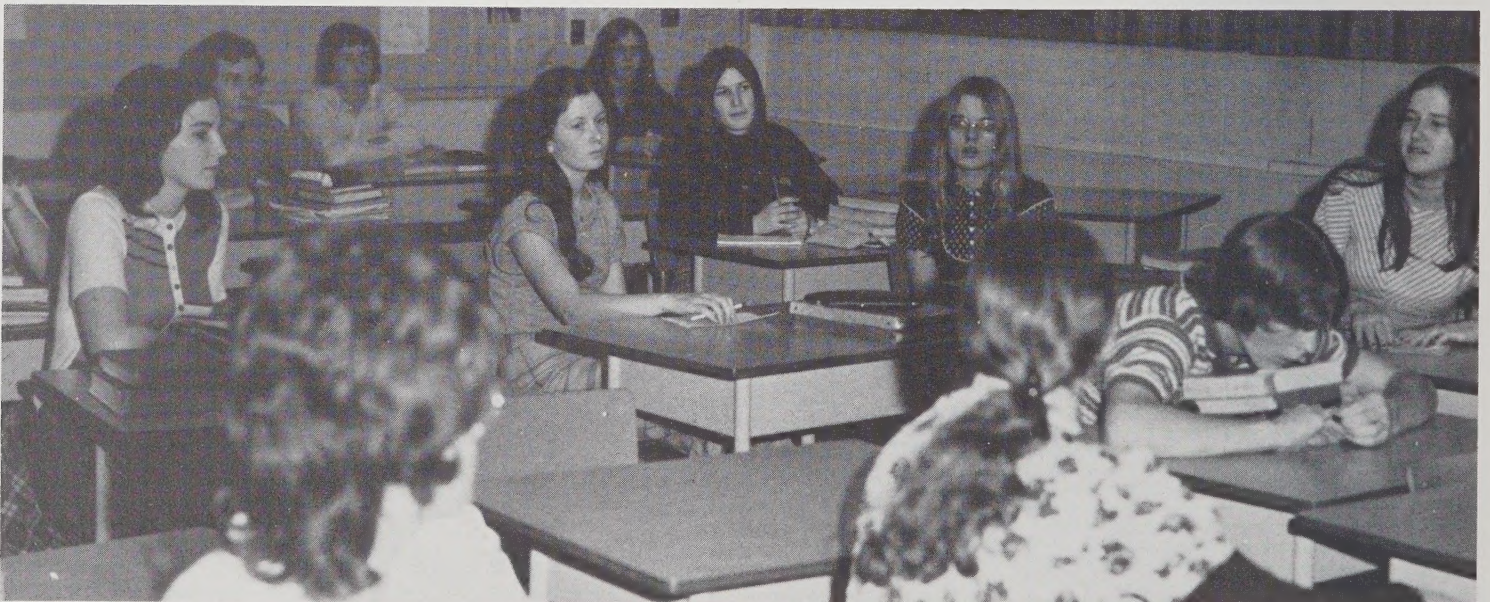

We are a rich council in money but poor in school spirit. School spirit is an individual's prerogative, but remember to be an individual. Spirit is on the increase which is terrific and essential for a pleasant school life but realize its worth and do not allow it to destroy your identity.

A students' council is the most staisfying and rewarding function of our school make-up. Without it, school life would deteriorate to a routine consisting of going at nine for seven or eight instructional periods and then returning home at three-twenty. This certainly eludes our quest for living. Therefore I urge anyone and everyone to get involved if they have the desire to have fun and enjoy school.

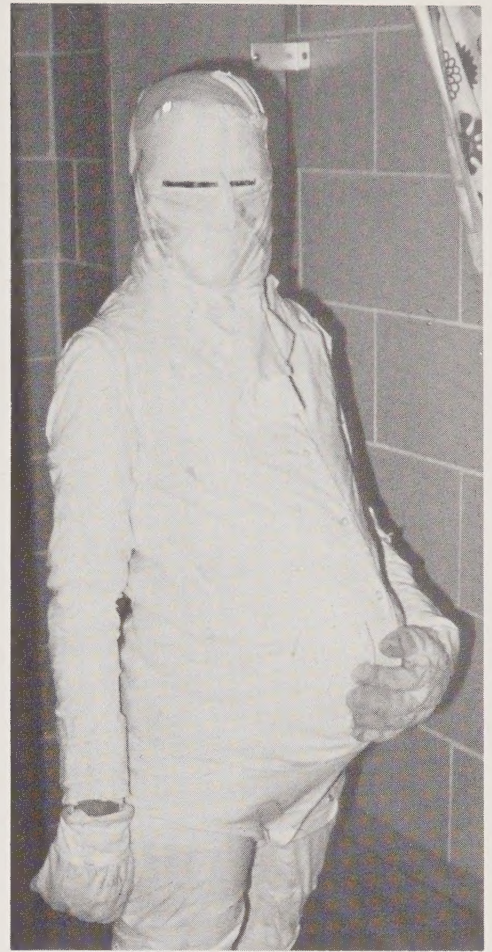

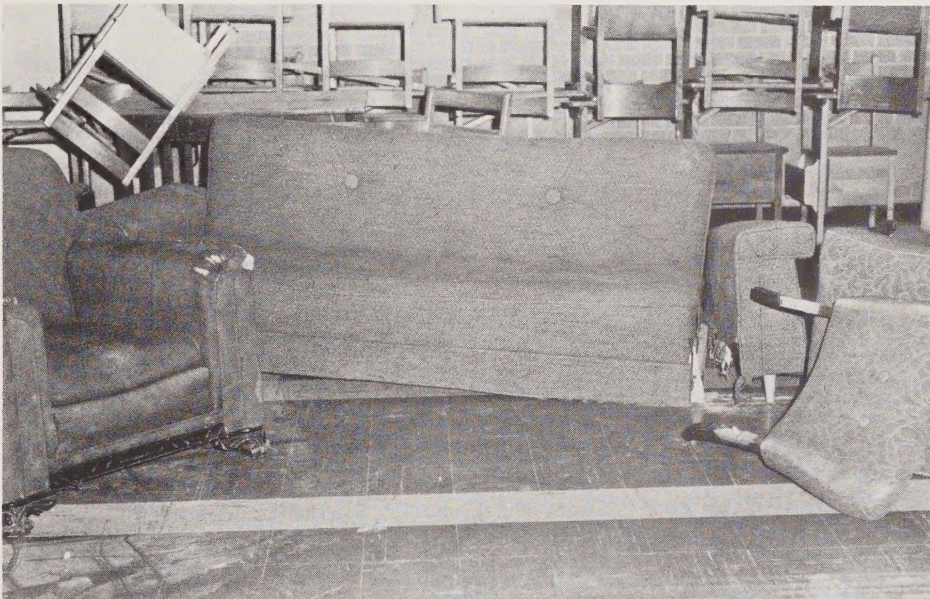

My sincerest thanks to my executive - Laurie Little, Vice-president; Cindy Thompson, Nigel Hall, Social Convenors; Anne Munro, Treasurer; Anita Erb, Secretary. Also the collective thanks of the Council to Mr. J. Steinman and Mr. W. Manoryk, our staff advisors.

Best of luck to next year's council and to the students of L.D.S.S., thank you for this opportunity and all your support.

Students' Council

Students' Council is involved in many aspects of school life. In the past year, several successful dances were held including a costume dance and work was begun on the student lounge.

Principal's Message

We would like to express our appreciation to the students and staff of L. D. S. S. for their efforts and contribution in the past year.

To those who are leaving, please accept our good wishes for success in the future.

To those who are returning, may you come back refreshed and eager to enter into another year of development and enjoyment.

We would like to add a special thank you to all those involved in producing the 1973 Laurel.

Vice-Principals

I.d.s.s. senior girls' victorious in perth-huron basketball

Finally, this year we reached our goal! We won the Perth-Huron.

After barely making it to the play-offs, we beat second place Mitchell in a sudden death game. Then, we played St. Marys in a two game total point series. After the first game we were behind by two points and we all went to St. Marys scared. With the aid of the cheerleaders we went on to victory. Everyone played an excellent game but Janice O'Mara's last shot was fantastic. It won the game for us!

Under Mrs. Parson's guiding hand, we went to WOOSA but lost our first game.

All in all our 1972 basketball team had a good season.

junior girls' basketball

This year's Junior Girls' basketball team was semi-successful. After playing nine scheduled games, we came out with seven wins and two losses. Seeing as we were tied with two other teams for second place and one other team was a ahead of us, names were drawn out of a hat. We came out in fourth place. Therefore we had to play St. Marys in the semi-finals - we lost. The score was 18-17. Too bad for the Junior Girls' basketball team! Well, we'll get 'em next year, won't we, girls? Sure we will!

Anyway, Brenda Youse and Rhonda Drover were the top point getters for the team with 72 and 65 respectively.

After winning Perth-Huron, the Senior Boys' Volleyball team went to WOSSA with high hopes. They put forth a strong effort but came up in a third spot finish.

junior boys' volleyball

The L.D.S.S. Jr. Boys' Volleyball team had quite a successful year except for a few games at WOSSA which left us in third place in the final series. With only a one game loss at the Huron-Perth meet, we still got that title.

How could we lose any matches in our regular season when we had such a great team as our's? After all, we had the 'Dynamic Duo' of that Gary Erb kid and our 'Super-star', Brad Rudachyk putting all of their power into the the spikes and set ups they made for each other.

Bert Greydanus was another member of our great team who also did his best to spike.

Those were our main heroes but there were other good players on the team too, such as Herbie (John Herbst), Jim Brenneman, and Wayne Williams. There was also the 'Flawless Four' who played every game from the bench and don't you believe that it's easy. These four were John Sachs, Paul Levine, Daryl Bowers, and Kevin Webster. Of course we can't forget our coach Mr. Walden, who suffered so severely for our cause. What could we have done without him? Yes...hmm...good question. Oh well, we had a darn good team anyways.

Three cheers for our side!

L.d.s.s. golf teams win perth-huron!

(but then, that's par for the course)

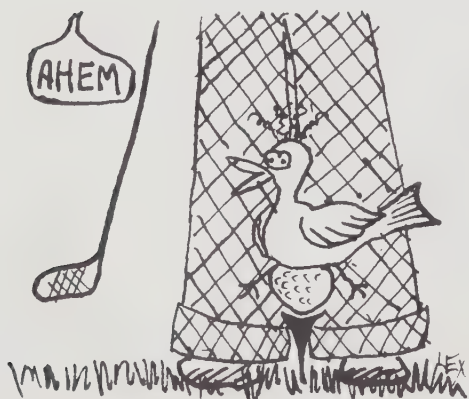

This fall, under the watchful eye of Terry Boyce, the golf team enjoyed a successful year, despite inclement weather. The foursome easily took the Perth-Huron title by almost fifteen strokes. The following week saw the boys journey to Stratford to compete in the WOSSA tournament minus Dave Carmichael who sustained a football injury. Rod MacKenzie filled in adequately. The team placed third. Here are the WOSSA results:

Oakridge . . . . .	314
Lucas . . . . .	335
Listowel . . . . .	340

FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: Debbie Frank, Peggy McLaughlin, Ann Stratychuk, Connie Cockwell.

The girls' golf team too took the Perth--Huron championship, defeating their nearest opponent by a fifteen stroke margin. This was the first female golf team L.D.S.S. had produced in several years. WOSSA does not have a girls' golf team competition as yet.

wrestling

This year, with the coaching of Mr. Gracey, our team had six wins and three losses. These wins came from everyone of the team, since most of the wrestlers were in their first season.

Huron-Perth was held at Clinton this year, and only three of the Listowel boys made it to the finals. Don Miller claimed a second along with Kevin Turbitt and Malcolm McLaren received a third.

This year wasn't one of the better years for the junior football team. We did not manage to win a game. We ended in last place with five losses and one tied game, 6-6. Our offense was not as strong as our defence but they still managed to do their job. The tie game should have been eighteen to six in favour of us but we ran into quite a few penalties, which caused most of our problems during the past season. Next year all of the players that will be with us promise that we will have a more successful year.

senior football- second in huron- perth

The '72 Senior Lords made quite a name for itself, led by co-captains Bill McLaughlin and Larry Ament.

The team started with a 12-6 victory over Palmerston, followed by wins over Wingham, 36-7 and St. Mary's, 48-0. Exeter was a stalemate, 8-8. Then a few injuries and a great deal of over-confidence combined to produce a 12-0 loss to North Western. Still smarting, Listowel beat the Goderich Vikings 10-8, the first victory a Listowel senior football team has managed over Goderich in almost a decade. Two tough games followed, Stratford Central 16-0 and Clinton 21-8.

Listowel placed second and played Clinton in the semi-final. In a hard fought battle, the Lords defeated the Redmen 16-6. The team advanced to Goderich who had home field advantage. The Lords carried Listowel's hopes for a championship and for the first sixty minutes the defense managed to hold on and the score was tied 6-6. In the overtime, the Vikings fought for a 15-6 victory that gave them the championship for the fifth consecutive time.

L. D. S. S. is proud of this year's Senior Lords. The team would like to thank coaches Weber and Colquhoun for their efforts.

FRONT ROW: Gary Jacobs, Larry Ament, John De Boer.

The Senior Boys' basketball team did very poorly this year and did not make it to the Perth-Huron.

junior boys' basketball

This year the team managed a tie for fourth place but didn't make the play-offs since Wingham beat us during the regular season.

midget boys' basketball

MIDGET BOYS BASKETBALL TEAM

The Midgets had a very successful season this year. Although there was no league play for the Midgets, they had many exhibition games that would practice and enable the boys to get to know their opposition's style of play. This year the tournament was held at Stratford Northwestern. Listowel were runners-up to the champions, Stratford Northwestern. Listowel was victorious over all Huron-Perth schools as well as Norwell except for Stratford Northwestern again. However the boys played extremely well for the championship against the strong Stratford club.

badminton teams-victors of huron-perth!

The senior badminton team put forth a great effort this year and came home with the Huron-Perth badminton title. Helping achieve this was a first in mixed doubles by Bob Hammond and Cathy Town, a second by Bill McLaughlin in singles, a second in doubles by Pat Grain and Susan Ott, another second in doubles by John Coghlin and Dale Fleischauer and a third by Peggy McLaughlin in singles.

Bob and Cathy went on to WOSSA to capture a second. From there, they placed third in AOSSA.

On April 3 of this year, the junior badminton team travelled to Wingham for the tournament. They captured the Huron-Perth Championship.

Individual placing was as follows: Rod MacKenzie, first in singles; Gary Erb and Ann Stratychuk, first in Mixed doubles; Brenda Youse and Judy Gordon, second in doubles; Linda Gibson, third in singles.

It was a very rewarding competition. Other schools competing were Clinton, Wingham, Stratford, Exeter, Goderich, Seaforth and Mitchell.

The senior girls' volleyball team worked hard during the season and came home with a second in the Perth-Huron finals. This enabled us to go to London to compete in WOSSA. We didn't bring the trophy home but we hope that our experience helps to better next year's team.

track and field

Several records were broken in this year's meet - Pat Grain, Senior shot put; Kevin Webster, Midget high jump; Nigel Hall, Hurdles; Brenda Kellum, Senior 440; Marion Versteeg, Junior high jump; Dave Bowles, Junior 880. All first and second place winners went to the Huron-Perth in London where Listowel placed last. Pat Grain won the shot put however and competed in WOSSA, finishing third.

junior soccer-close second

Except for two ties which should have been victories, the Listowel Juniors would have captured their third Huron-Perth Conference title in five years. As it was, we finished one point behind the champions.

Wayne Williams, who scored seven goals, and Paul Johnson, co-captain; were chosen to receive the first junior soccer most valuable players award at the season's end.

The team consisted of thirty players, twelve of whom are eligible to play next year where we look for strong competition in both soccer teams. Mr. Hewitt and Mr. Nind were our coaches.

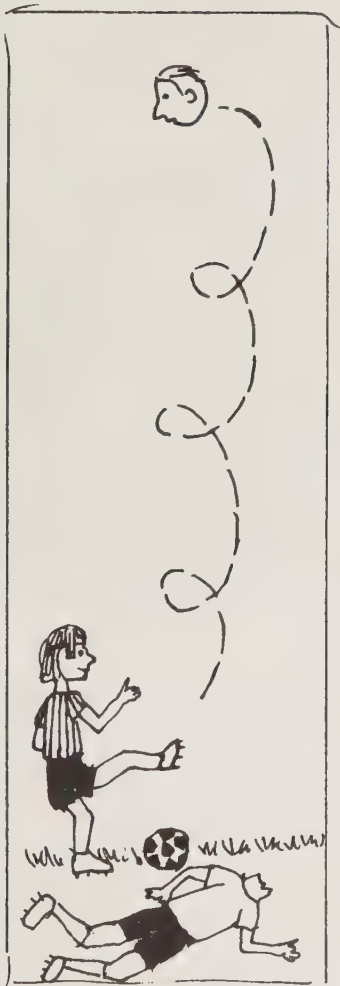

The coaches with the team's waterboy.

The senior soccer team had a good season in spite of the fact that they didn't quite manage to bring the trophy home.

Both the junior and senior teams would like to thank Mr. Wisternoff for his many helpful lessons in soccer while he taught at L. D. S. S. Our only hope now is that he doesn't tell all the little secrets to our St. Marys opponents.

cross- country

Last Fall was the first time for a girl's cross-country team. Under coach, Mr. Webster, both boys and girls teams travelled to St. Marys and Mitchell and finally to the Huron-Perth. Placings were low. Next year we hope that more girls and boys come out and we will make a better showing.

gymnastics

Nearly the entire gymnastics team was in the novice division this year. Next year, they hope to place better, having had a bit more experience in competition.

curling

G.A.A.-B.A.A.

The girls' and boys' athletic associations perform many valuable functions in the school, organizing fund drives for new uniforms, spirit rallies and games. They should be given our fullest support.

Susan Flood, Anne Munro

Scott Coghlin, Bill McLaughlin.

cheerleaders-foundation of school spirit

Lynn Hanna, Barb Bender, Helen Jonkman, Debbie Strachan, Terry Demmerling, Ellen Downie, Barb Cross, Gloria Hanna, Lynn Albrecht.

The 1973 cheerleaders had a very productive year. School spirit was more enthusiastic among students and cheerleaders. Each year it builds up a little more. With a little more support from the student body and team work, it could be greatly improved. Some pep rallies were led by the cheerleaders in hope of school cooperation. Next year with a few more involved from both sexes, we will have junior and senior cheerleaders and maybe some guys.

radio

We are pleased that the Department of Communications of Canada has seen fit to issue the amateur radio call-sign, VE3LSS, for use by Listowel Secondary School.

When we get our ham station in operation, we will have the opportunity to speak to other parts of the world via short wave radio.

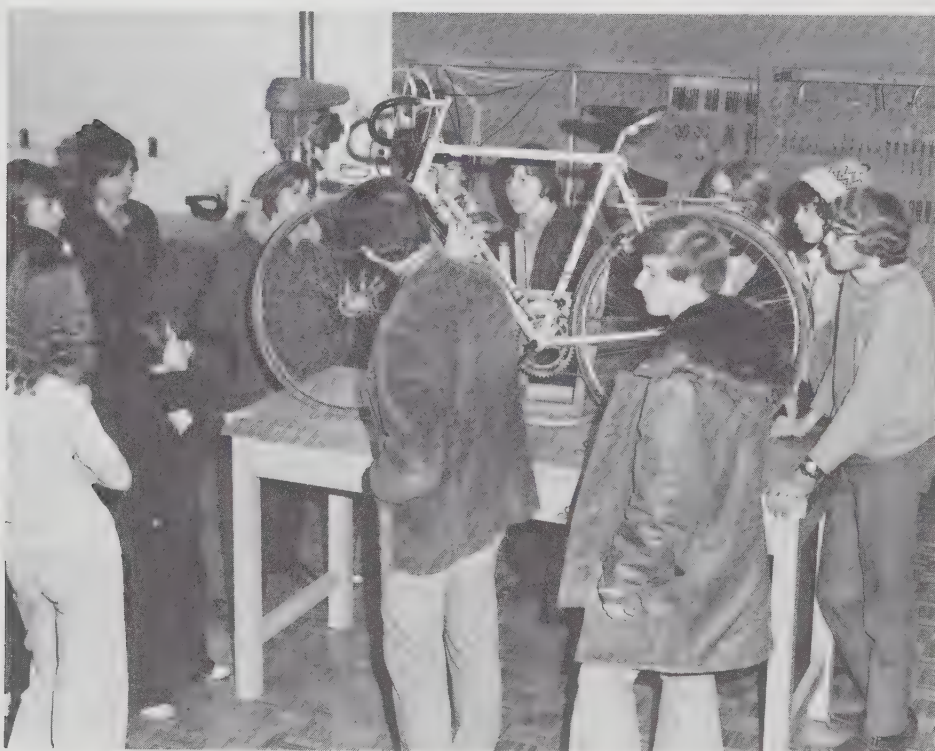

Our club's members are learning the international morse code with assistance from Mr. Hammond, VE3GCO, since it is a requirement for an amateur radio licence.

Listening to foreign broadcasts from the BBC, Radio Moscow, the Voice of Turkey, etc. is an interesting way to correlate radio with current events, geography and languages.

Join us, if you wish to take up a hobby to keep you in tune with the world.

cycling

The bicycle club under the supervision of Mr. Webster was very successful. The club's official name is the North Perth Bicycle Club and on the crests, the school name is incorporated as L. D. S. S. 'Spokes.' Some members have joined the League of American Wheelmen and the club on a whole has plans to become affiliated with the Canadian Cycle Association.

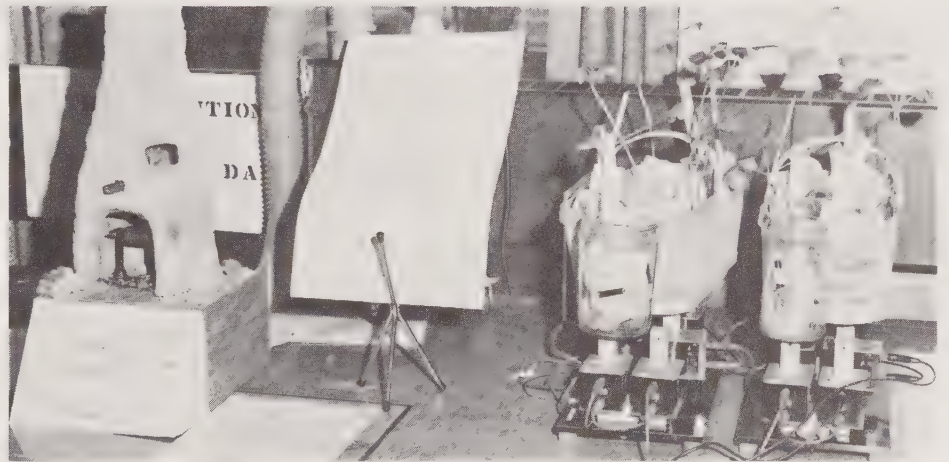

The club had a weekly run every Sunday and a tour to Alliston on May 24 weekend. Each Monday, about thirty members showed up for guidance in care, use and selection of their bicycles.

science

The Science Club has had quite an exciting year. We began by an anti-pollution project aimed at collecting all of Listowel's leaves and to make a compost pile. The response to the advertising was greatly appreciated as was the work of our industrious poster makers and other committees. As a result, we gathered many tons of leaves and prevented much possible air pollution. The Science Club has promoted projects for the Science Fair. We hope to do many other scientific endeavours this year. The ones we have done have been very successful.

First prize winners in the science fair were: Faye Keffer and Betty Donkersgoed, for their bean exhibit.

drama

This year the Drama Club started with the Nooniers. The Nooniers enjoyed great success but due to other projects they had to be cancelled.

We are also planning to go to a play in Toronto in the near future. Overall we have had a good year but hope to make next year even better. Many thanks to Mr. Bald, our advisor.

photography

Under the guidance of Mr. J. Hofstee the L. D. S. S. Photography Club had another interesting year. This year we were able to obtain a series of slide presentations from the Kodak Film Company. Some of the presentations were, how to develop your films, printing techniques, how to take indoor colour slides and many more aspects dealing with lighting, and positioning of the subjects to make you a good photographer. A new electronic flash unit was purchased to replace the old one. Besides taking pictures for the Banner, the new members learned how to develop and print their own films. More members are always welcome. The president was Eugene Swartzentruber and the secretary-treasurer was Allan Clemens.

audio-visual

The Audio-Visual Club has been active again this year under the direction of the Executive and Mr. Boyce. Our projects this year are the creation of a noon-hour radio station, planning assemblies, the fashion show, the At Home, as well as keeping the audio and videotape libraries up to date. We are currently planning a year end trip to Toronto to tour a television studio. A message to prospective members: If you like a club which is definitely out of the ordinary, the Audio-Visual Club is for you!

art

This past year a gang of culture vultures got together for the fourth year to form an art club. We did all sorts of things ranging from sketching trips to a Christmas Boutique to a basic project in art design. Mrs. TarBush, the ever faithful leader of the band, guided us through the year and offered her advice to all who needed it.

This was the last year for the art club. Thanks to all members and people who have helped in any way. Who knows what great artist may arise from room 103.

business game

The Business Game involves the students in the financing and day-to-day management of a manufacturing business. The student directors decide the selling price of their product, the budget for advertising, and promotion, research and development, and most important, allocate funds to pay the cost of producing the volume of merchandise they expect to sell.

L. D. S. S. entered three teams. They placed 42, 44, and 74 in the regular competition among 1196 teams.

Team Two, which placed 42, consists of Janet Veitch, Anita Erb, Darlene Gowing, back row; and Margaret Good, Marilyn Acheson, Carol Purcell, Janet Beirnes.

library

This year again the library club has proven to be an essential part of the school. The assistants have managed to keep the student body out of chaos in our maze of books. They worked at the desk, shelved books and did many numerous things behind the scenes like filing, and book repair. This year our senior assistants were Betty Deitner, Alfretta Versteeg, Lynn Zurbrigg, Ena Drost and Brenda Bremner.

These young librarians made every spare minute count in a most effective way and were rewarded with a trip to the Stratford Shakespearean Festival to see "She Stoops to Conquer."

A large part of our success was due to the faithful advice and work from Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Pratt.

perma press

Professor
Fabric

The Perma Press was designed to unwrinkle the student's ignorance of the school and student activities and to develop school spirit. We have had a mediocre response from the students both in buying the paper and in submitting material to the paper. The Perma Press staff hopes that next year the students will continue the printing of the school newspaper and there will be a greater response from the student body. EDITORS: Margaret Ament and Joe Thompson.

NOTE: The Perma Press has folded due to lack of interest.

Mr. Earl Davis is still churning out his monthly quotas of young Jackie Stewarts. This year he has been assisted by Mr. Murray Thompson.

driver education

reach for the top

The Reach for the Top team hit a new low this year, losing both its games. We now call ourselves Reach for the Bottom. Still, the team members learned a lot in the way of general information and behind the scene activities at the CKNX studios. Our substitute was Molly Knox and our staff advisor was Arne Kotanen. Best of luck to next year's team.

Smoking the victory (?) cigar

chess

In September, there was a tremendous increase in the popularity of Chess. The reason was obvious. The most famous chess match ever held had just ended. Between thirty and forty students joined the Chess Club, and everyone was eager to compete.

Although this early interest has declined to an extent as the school year has progressed, the competition is still intense. Presently, the play-offs are in progress and a champion should be crowned sometime in April.

music

As usual, this year was a busy one, speaking from a musical point of view.

The first music event of the 1972-1973 school year was a concert at the school by the Ontario Youth Choir, conducted by Mr. Fagan. Around Christmas the University of Western Ontario choir presented a concert as well. Probably the musical highlight of the year was the Carib-Trinidad Steel Orchestra. Their music all came from steel drums but sounded like many instruments. As well a dance troupe performed native dances.

To raise money for a trip to Ottawa, the chorus held an auction and bake sale. It was a lot of fun and over $1100 was made. The work it took to raise the money paid off when the chorus had a great time in Ottawa. They sang for a national convention of Music educators in the National Arts Centre.

Special thanks to Mr. Fagan, Mr. Rowbotham and Mrs. Fagan. Also thanks to all the members of the Chorus who work so hard to "Do Better."

Excursions: to Ottawa and to Rome

The Grade Tens of L. D. S. S. throughout the past school year, worked hard in raising money to support their history classes' trip to Ottawa in April. They had a very successful Christmas tree sale, several raffles, chocolate bar sale and a car wash.

During their stay in Ottawa the group toured such places as the Parliament Buildings, the War Museum, the Royal Mint and Rideau Hall.

The students were very tired when their train arrived home at 2 a.m. Sunday but everyone agreed it was a fun time and a worthwhile trip.

Many instances come to mind as I think back to the Rome trip. This was both an educational and fun trip. Personally I would like to thank Mr. Hammond, the Rehkopf's, the Gracey's, Mr. McCombie, Miss Nuhn and Miss Jacques for making this trip possible.

Some things that stand out were the theft of our Italian money packages, the shooting in downtown Rome, and our various daily excursions to Florence, Pisa, Naples, Pompeii and Sorento and the Vatican. We saw much beautiful terrain and a different way of life. Arrivederci Roma!

Laurel

The Laurel club is basically a hard-working group of individuals who are intensely interested in capturing school life at L. D. S. S. as a memorable keepsake. Although the membership is not as large as it could be (or should be), we cope and have a lot of fun too. If you are interested in finding out exactly what we do or if you have new ideas for the yearbook or if you just like hard work, drop in on one of our meetings and discover how your school yearbook is put together. It isn't a sin to be intelligently curious!

I tried to write a little poem
 With lines that flowed along;
 But as I sat and tried to think
 I heard you play your song.

You played it clear, you played it soft;
 I tried to concentrate;
 But every time my pen went down
 My brain said no, no wait.

So here I sit with pen in hand,
 And paper clean and white.
 I cannot seem to write a poem -
 I'll try again tonight.

Wreading wrots the mind!

Buildings.
 Small ones,
 Skinny ones,
 Coughing ones,
 Bright ones,
 People rushing along in many ways
 On their cold cement paths
 That connect these concrete and wood abodes
 But far from the rushing
 And fretting people and their buildings
 There lying on a hill
 Under a tree
 A guy smoking a cigar,
 Smiling!

THE PICNIC

Down in the valley, a creature stirred,
 With legs like a frog, head like a cabbage,
 The blanket was folded, and the creature purred;
 There was butterscotch pudding for dinner,
 And the "Man from Glad" cleaned up the yard;

 Yes... yes... yes
 Fiddlefo, fiddleede, the short haired Elephant
 Ran into a tree
 When he returned what did he see??!
 Fiddly fie fiddleey dee
 Madman look LEFT Madman look RIGHT
 OH! See the darkness of the night
 How's the Boy?
 ..... gone to bed
 Oh, I thought he was...

One day, not so long ago...
There was a poet named Homer
Who ran a Greek pizza parlour.
His pizzas went flop and so did his business.
This is a very sad poem
In so far as the pizzas are concerned.
For Homer was a philosopher too.
I never did like philosophical pizzas.
They give me indigestion
But it gives me something to think about.
Indigestion is something to think about.
I'd say it's something to feel about.
How do you feel about indigestible philosophical
Greek pizzas, in general?

T'IS YOU

Oh, I just can't wait! My big moment will be here very shortly. We're moving today and my chance to expose myself to the cold, cruel world is drawing near. Ah.....it's such a good life and the house is so beautiful.....but, the business world awaits us.

The house was usual in shape, square with four thick walls, three levels, ranging from attic to basement, and the outside was catchy to the shopper's eye because it's created by the leading company.

My brothers and sisters and I completely fill our house because there are so many of us. Two hundred to be exact. We spent our early days preparing for the big moment when we would serve our duty. Many of us discussed the various ways that we could be used. As for me, I have no great aim, I just want to be a faithful member of our species.

It won't be long now till the house will be opened to the public at our new location. We will see the business world for the first time! I'm sure that I'll get hired because it's a cold season and we are much in demand. Besides, I'm the first in line.....wait!.....It's opening.....I can see light.....My big moment is here!

Boy!.....he looks grumpy; I think he needs one of us. Yes, he's reaching for me. Good-bye everybody!

He's spreading me out in his hand. Oh Oh...It's a big one! He's inhaling deeply, his eyes are squinting, his nose is curled up.....ATCHOOOOooooo.....Holy smokes! What a load!

It's pretty tough to be a kleenex.

I looked at him
My mother passed him by
With compassion. I saw
Without thinking. While looking at His smile.
The rough road and
I could no longer see him.

I saw a human need.

OH NO, NOT AGAIN

RRRRRRRRR sounded the police siren that once again summoned Mrs. I.R. Speedy to the curbside. Presently, Traffic Constable McPaddy idled up to Mrs. Speedy's four-twenty-seven, fuel injected, dual carbed, Thrush exhaust, 1954 Volkswagon with the easily recognizable peace sign painted on the rear.

Constable McPaddy was going to enjoy this, as Mrs. Speedy was one of his regular customers. As always he tried to make himself as friendly and cheerful as possible. After all, he wasn't getting the ticket.

"Top o' the morning' to yuh, Mrs. Speedy," chuckled McPaddy.

"Same tuh youse, copper, " snapped Mrs. Speedy.

"Why thankee madame an' how's ya farin' today m'darlin'?" inquired McPaddy sincerely, as he removed his helmet, and got out his ticket book and pen.

"Don't youse be callin' me darlin' er I'll get me Buster tuh smak in yer ugly snout. " snarled Mrs. Speedy as she reved up her mean machine.

"Now don't be getting on an ugly, dearie, I'm jest doin' me duty and yuh was managin' ninety-five in a twenty-five mile zone. " added the Constable.

"Listen here copper, don't youse be given' me the big lecture see, 'cause I'se on me way tuh work at Slandy's Slop House, " pointed out Mrs. Speedy adamantly.

"Don't be gettin' me wrong, Mrs. Speedy but bein' caught in a speed trap doin' o'er seventy-five, four times in a week an' this bein' only Wednesday has tuh be some kind a record, " sounded the cop.

By this time, Constable McPaddy had already written about three tickets and was well into his fourth. He spoke casually as he went on. "Mrs. Speedy, I've bin thinkin'. If'n yuh was tuh be gettin' another automobile no' as powerful, yeh would not be gettin' caught in these here speed traps. "

"Youse could be right copper, " admitted Mrs. Speedy, "I'se bin thinkin' 'bout tradin' in the machine for a more economisin' mobile, ya, I think yer right. I'll be takin' youse up on yer idea. "

"Well, aint' that jest fine, " said McPaddy approvingly.

"Guess I'll be movin' on now, copper, " uttered Mrs. Speedy.

"Don't be fergettin' youm tickets now lady" added the Constable.

"I wasn't, " she replied as McPaddy handed her the six tickets. "Six this time, a new record this time, I believe copper. "

"That's fer sure m'darlin', " conceded McPaddy.

"Well, I must be tearin' out v'here now, copper, be seein' yuh" she roared above the thunder of her engine.

"Bye now, drive safely, " dictated McPaddy.

"See youse 'round, " she screamed as she screeched off, sprewing gravel all over the road.

All Traffic Constable McPaddy could say was, "Well, here we go again. "

①

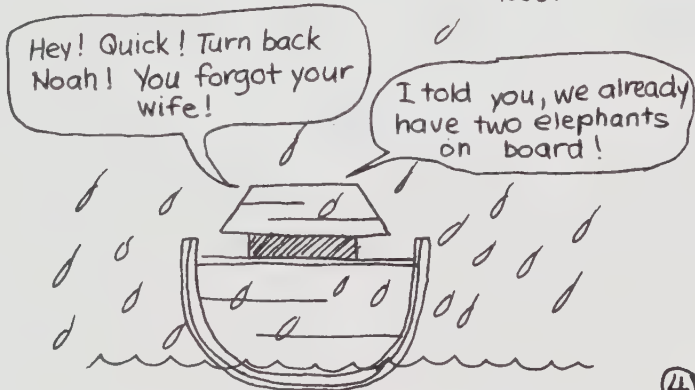

One day, God looked down upon the earth and saw it just didn't measure up to his expectations. So he found Noah, and told him to build an ark and take two of every animal and put them in the ark and take his family and put them in the ark because God was going to destroy the world with a great flood.

②

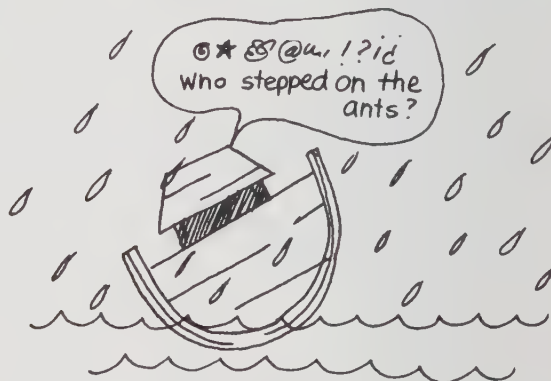

③

So Noah built the ark and loaded all the animals. Then came the rain and the flood.

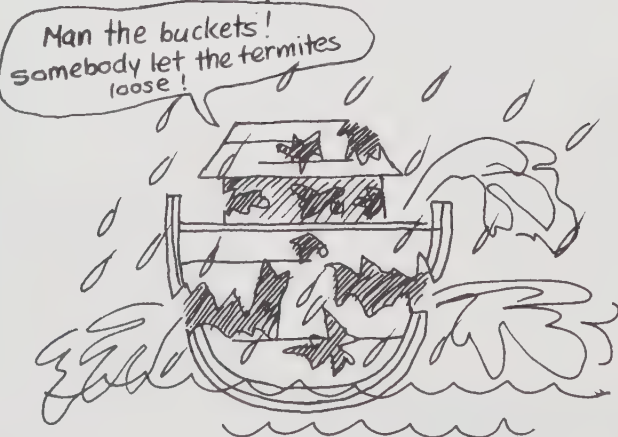

④

We must face facts. Noah did have problems.....

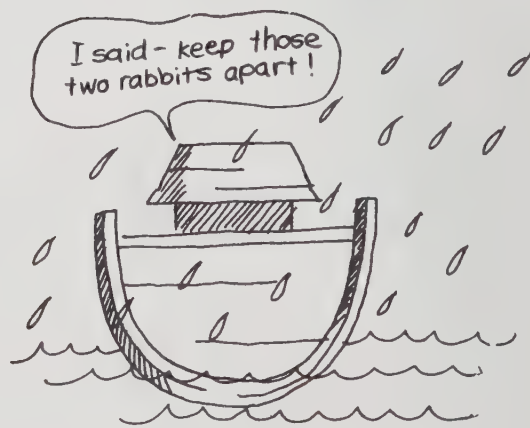

⑤

..... and problems.....

⑥

..... and more problems.....

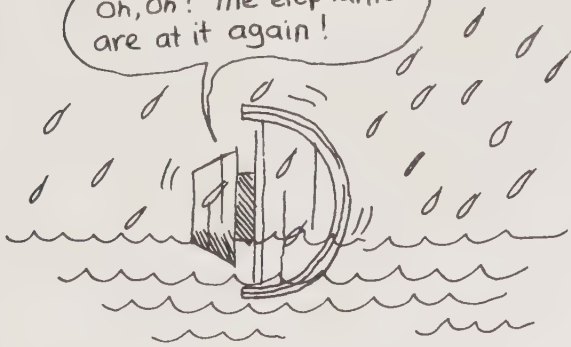

⑦

..... and even more problems.

Oh, oh! The elephants are at it again!

8

I mean spending 40 days and 40 nights with all those animals!

Noah! You beast!
Keep away from me!

9

And all that water!

What do you mean? - I forgot to put the bathroom in?

10

Think of Noah's joy when he first saw land!

Thankyou God! Another day with those two skunks and it was either going to be them or me!

11

But even when the water disappeared, Noah had problems.

O.K. ! Nobody
move!

12

And then Noah fell down on his knees and thanked God for sparing himself and his family.

... And please, if there has to be a next time... deoderize the animals before you send them a board. You don't know what a rhino smells like after 40 days; or a hippo; or an elephant;
and those gorillas were
murder!

13

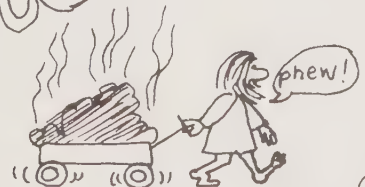

And as a final note to the story, we leave
Noah with the biggest problem of all!

Hey! Who's gonna clean up the mess in the bottom of this ark?
Yyeeecchhh!

A man walked out upon a plain and there he met another man. Both were obviously fatigued as they had been travelling from afar. As they came closer, they eyed each other intently, waiting for the other to make some sort of salutation. Then as they came within talking distance, one of the two started looking around as if he had not noticed the other. He was a short, stocky man with quick but unsure movements. Through the rectangular glass in his suit, beady eyes squinted out and the curves of his thin lips appeared to be inverted in his hollow precarious face.

The man coming from the opposite direction seemed to be walking in a cloud of grandeur. A tall, well-proportioned man, his movements complimented his medium. The austere gazes of his sky-blue, sky-wide eyes absorbed everything within his scope of vision, not by deciphering each object, but rather by incorporating them with everything else. A smile of universal esteem beamed from his placid visage.

As they met he spoke first.

'What is your name?' he asked, almost sympathetically, but with a phoney inquisitive air. For some reason the question did not sound as droll as it should have.

'John,' answered the other with about the same expression as the name suggested. 'And what are you known by?'

'I should like to answer to the name Exodus, however the world knows me by another name and does not know me except by the name. If I told you my real name you would perhaps know me, or think you did, and what enjoyment would come from that?'

'Well then, I shall call you Exodus, but why did you ask me mine?'

'Why, for the purpose for which one has a name - so that I may address you by it. It is much more personal. However, there is too much feeling attached to a name. The word "Earth" has the same sentimental value and sense of security attached to it, as the word "Home" does, but in both cases they are just names and it is the actual, physical place which means much more. What we are thought of by the world is not of the utmost importance and is really quite a triviality on a personal basis. Tell me, John, What have you seen on your journey, thus far?'

'If it interests you at all, I have seen very little. After all what is there to see on an asteroid? The greatest part of the people who live here do not really like it, I think. There is absolutely nothing to do; no football games, no theatre, not even any television. All in all, it is infinitely drab. I wish I were back on Earth.'

'Ah, my dear fellow, you are looking in the wrong direction. Take a look at our planet. To me, just seeing our Earth reduced to the size of a basketball makes this life unique. When I first came here, I believe I experienced something that has changed me greatly. We are above the earth, though, not it above us, and we should take full advantage of it.'

'As far as I'm concerned,' continued the other, pointing homeward, 'that's up. I really must be going, though, as I have to reach my destination before nightfall. I wish you as little of the evils of this world as possible. Goodbye.'

Without saying anything the other raised his gloved hand and both proceeded on their journeys. They soon disappeared from each other's sight over the unusually close horizons, so that they might have been in completely different worlds.

John trudged on and on, constantly wondering how much farther he had to go. The sun beat down on his dark suit, making the heat almost unbearable. He was forced to ascend a great many hills, but it never seemed as if he was going downhill for very long. He looked at the barren land, only fertile enough to support scrub vegetation. The trees, what there were of them, were almost ugly. For some reason they were twisted and bent, like an old man. He shivered as he noticed the bugs and parasites crawling in and out of the bark of a tree nearby. At last he saw the landwork he was looking for - a swamp. Just beyond that he was told, was the settlement most closely resembling the cities on Earth. When he arrived he found it deserted. ....

Exodus, still pondering the gentleman he had encountered walked briskly along. He marvelled as he saw a jack rabbit bounding along, taking jumps of twenty feet or more. It was not long until Exodus arrived at the end of his journey. A lady, though she looked like no more than a girl, greeted him as he entered a prefabricated log cabin. Presently, they both reappeared and hand in hand, walked towards a small wood. On the way they noticed a tiny waterfall, though it seemed mighty if you just looked at the water moving rapidly past the bank. They wondered what creature was at its mouth lapping up the water so fast that the water kept running.

'Oh, I must show you my favourite tree,' she said sweetly, taking him by the hand.

Running, almost waltzing, she led him to an old, hollow tree bent over with age. One side of the trunk was worn completely away so that you could stand upright in it.

'This is where my daddy used to bring me,' she started. 'He told me that the fairies used to slide down here.' She was almost dreaming, pointing to the slide-like part of the trunk. 'I wonder why it's turned green?'

'Oh, that's probably from the green clothes that the fairies undoubtedly wore,' ventured Exodus.

'Over here,' she went on, pointing to a knothole, 'is where my daddy told me the fairies looked out to watch me.'

They continued on talking and laughing as they relived their youth.

ANOTHER DAY

The moon hides
The sun comes up - its rays of warmth flooding over the land
The birds begin to sing

The grasses wave
A restless breeze flows across the meadow and wakens the animals
The flowers begin to open

A mare stands
She nudges her young one - she knows it is time for him to eat
The foal begins to rise

A cat stretches
A tree shakes out its branches and a cock crows in the barn
Thus another day has dawned

THESIS AND NATHANAI

There was once a beautiful young maiden who lived in a forest surrounded by many creatures who were also beautiful. The young woman's name was Thesis, daughter of a peasant. This young woman knew she was beautiful and considered herself to be the most enhancing of all women. She was very proud and looked down with disdain upon her fellow mortals. Thesis hated to be touched. It troubled her deeply when someone touched her, because she felt she was better than those around her. She rejected kindness.

A certain young man one day saw her lying in a field, her foot caught under a broken branch. He came to her and offered to help her up. Thesis pushed him away saying, "Keep away, you are not worthy enough to help me up."

The young man was very hurt at her hatefulness. He went to Nathanaii, goddess of love to tell her what had happened. After he had explained to her he said pleadingly, "Help us, Nathanaii, for Thesis is very hateful: she is merciless and considers herself better and more beautiful than anyone else." Nathanaai accepted this statement in silence but pondered at how any person could be so cruel. She decided to disguise herself as an old woman who had a heavy load to carry.

Nathanaii went down to the mortal world below her, travelling past Thesis' doorway. She fell over a large stone and her load was thrown off. Thesis came along absorbed in thoughts of her beauty, and paying no attention to the woman lying helpless beside the way. The old woman cried out, "Help me, for I have fallen and my pack has been scattered all over the ground." Thesis only sneered and laughed disdainfully,

"You'd expect me to help you, old woman, with your gnarled hands and ugly face? You are not worthy to wipe my shoes." she said cruelly. Nathanaii reached out appealing to touch the girl.

"Don't touch me," she cried, "you are not worthy. I hate to be touched." Nathanaii now believed the words spoken by the boy. She said, "Thesis, I have heard of your hate to be touched, but I have not believed. I see now it is true. I see you so wrapped up in yourself you do not notice or care to notice others."

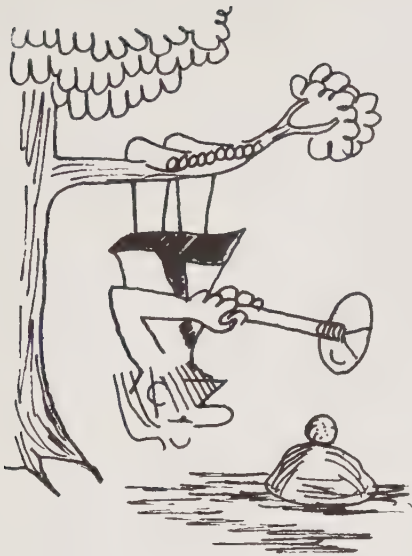

"You will become a common thistle. No one will touch you, admire you, love you. You will stand in pastures, cursed by men, forever.

This is a tale about a middle aged couple, who decided to take a vacation. It was the first vacation that they had had in years and decided to make it a long remembered one. Well, after about a week of changing her mind the wife finally decided to go to Arabia. The man reluctantly went along with her and the next day after making arrangements they left.

The two were supposed to meet a tour guide at a little town called Tina-Cola-Hi-Jack. When they arrived they found out that the tour guide had not shown up yet. So they rented a couple of burrows and decided to go on a small tour themselves. After riding about a half an hour the lady said that she would like to go back to town now. They turned around to return to the town but it was no where in sight.

Shortly they saw these two Arabs coming towards them on horseback. The married couple thought that the Arabs might be able to help them. Instead the Arabs seized the two and took them back to the camp as slaves. The couple were thrust into a cage and there they were kept for days and days.

Then after a couple of weeks of nagging and nagging the man heard that this was going to be the day that the slave traders where coming for the big sale.

Finally it was the man and his nagging wife's turn to be put up on auction. First it was the man's turn. Well now, this man was really strong and fairly good looking too. There were four people bidding on him. And finally a man bought him for two hundred dollars.

The woman looked at the man who had bought her husband. Back at his caravan she saw a harem of beautiful women. When the man saw this he smiled. "Darling," the lady exclaimed!

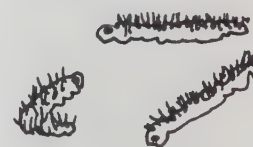

Her husband looked back and said, "Well dear. When you're bought, you're bought!!!"

Winter Carnival

This year the Sno-Carnival was a little different being that there was no snow. To work around this, we used the local arena and turned our attentions to a Skating Party and Pancake Feast. The turnout was excellent.

Around the school, about thirty scruffy looking males were preparing for the beard growing contest. Other people were practising for the Tug of War and the Wheel Barrow, Garbage can and 3-legged Races. As the week drew to an end, the halls became cluttered with posters for the Sno-Queen contest.

The grand finale was an assembly where prizes were awarded, the beard contest winner was chosen and our lovely Sno-Princess, Brenda Spieran, crowned. A dance to Father followed.

Initiation

Once again the niners were formally welcomed to the hallowed halls of L. D. S. S. They showed their respect to their superiors by cheerfully shining shoes whenever asked. A small verse was recited at the same time beginning, "Oh honourable senior..." An initiation dance followed.

Music Night

The music students of L. D. S. S. presented their annual spring concert on May 16. Selections were given by each music class as well as the Chorus. Mr. Fagan introduced the music festival winners and several of them sang solos.

First place winners in tenor and bass from Left to Right: Dave Daunt, Tom Hammond, level 3 bass; Brian McCutcheon, level 1 bass; Chris Vyse, level 2 bass; Stephen Street, level 3 tenor; Kent Gillin, level 1 tenor; Bob Dirstein, level 2 tenor. ABSENT: Kevin McMillan, level 1 bass; Lloyd Willis, level 4, 5 tenor.

At Home

This year's At Home presented a South Pacific theme. The decorating committee and the A-V club are all commended for their efforts in decorating the gym so colourfully. Hawaiian girls pattering around in bare feet added to the tropical atmosphere of the formal dance.

Following a talent show and week of campaigning by eight worthy contestants, Mary Ann Coghlin was crowned queen. Her attendants were Gail Lake and Bonnie Bremner.

The Revised Edition provided the music for this annual event.

Melody Wombwell, Joe Thompson and Mary Ann Hutchings wish to express their sincere gratitude to all who helped make this year's At Home a success.

Editors' Message

We were very disappointed this year with the yearbook sales. Didn't we advertise enough? Are the Laurels too expensive? You can have a smaller book with a smaller price. Would you prefer partial payment? Then why can you afford $5 or $6 for a record all at once? Why not $3.50 for your school yearbook which will outlast the record? It is your choice.

Our staff members, although few, were fantastically hard working, interested people who typed, drew, identified and organized a conglomeration of material into the 1973 Laurel. We weren't terribly efficient - not one deadline was met - but we hope that you like the finished effort.

Next year we are switching publishing companies, another of a number of changes in the yearbook instigated this year. Mr. Janes is also retiring as advisor and a new advisor will be appointed. May sincere thanks to Mr. Janes for his effort and patience. Please remember that a successful Laurel can only be made with your co-operation. Hand in write-ups promptly and answer our pleas for help. Come in and tell us your ideas or better still, join the Laurel staff. And most important - buy a Laurel!

Charlene Gordon
Bonnie Shiell

P.S.

We would also like to thank J. Horace Fly and Sidney Spider for their help in illustrating this book.
